Fearbook Dedication

School Nurse

Guidance Counsellor

Each year the Fearbook Staff chooses an individual that has influenced their lives to dedicate the Fearbook to. This person goes above and beyond what is expected of them and helps make our time here at Leicester Middle memorable. This year we have chosen both Mrs. Funningham & Mrs. Warnken.

Mrs. Funningham

She makes us feel better when we feel sick.

She teaches us manners and what is right and wrong.

She's like my mom.

She keeps me healthy & safe

Both

I can count on them when I need someone to listen.

They are always looking to help.

They care about our problems.

Mrs. Warnken

She is sweet and sensitive to our problems.

When we have a problem we can count on her to help.

She makes class fun.

She allows us to express ourselves.

How will I be remembered? Class Will

It took some time, but eventually I learned the ropes and I am now ready to pass on my knowledge to future Middle School students. Good luck, and remember there is no pool under the gym floor!

Joe Rollins - I'd leave my football on top of the roof since SOMEONE threw it up there.
Emma Walsh - I leave behind all my memories and fantastic times to my younger sister Ellen and all the 6th and 7th graders.

Lyndzey Tefft - I'd leave behind all the drama of 6th and 7th grade.
Erica Stead - I'm not shy!

Joe Brouillard - I leave behind my Ipod for Mr. Berthiaume to take away from my little brother when he gets here.
Cassandra Thompson - I leave behind all my good times to Jen, Katya, Jess, Kadijah, Britt, and all my other girls in 7th.

Crystal Holland - My bad luck, to give to people who don't deserve it cause I don't want it any more.
Kaleigh Rockwood - To all the upcoming 8th graders, I leave my immaturity and my ability to learn.

Alysha Clark - Arguing with Mr. Buckley all the time.
Ashley Richford - I leave behind all the good times with all of you and all the drama that comes along with it.

Alycia Sprague - I leave behind a notebook, write too many notes.

The trial of the Century

By Heather Witkowski & Brianna Hoar

A mock trial on Bulling took place on March 10, 2006. A number of students in the 8th grade took part. Four Representatives from the District Attorney's Office, and the chief of Leicester Police Department also played roles.

The case was about a girl who was on trial for harassing another student. She threatened her verbally and over the internet. We learned about Internet safety and how to respond when someone threatens you.

We would like to thank Mr. Vaughan and Mrs. Warnken for putting together the activity.

Welcome
Mrs. Fournier

The Arts

Thank You

Ashley Richford

It's all the small things you do
To make me smile
When I'm down
You let me know that someone cares
The way you tickle me
That gives me presence of happiness
The way you hold me so gentle
Lets me know some one loves me
With the sweet presence
Of your smile that makes me
Feel that you care
The smell of you is
One that I love
That makes me shake
Because of you I am me
I don't have to change
Who I am and who I want to be
Because of you I feel loved
And for this I thank you
